Site Information:

Durham Ranch sits fifteen minutes outside the historic town of St. Helena, CA. The 76-acre property is marked by ancient oaks, rock-hewn streams, and a spring fed pond. The former cattle ranch is now surrounded by vineyards, olive groves and miles of white fencing. The 4000 square foot barn serves as the centerpiece of the ranch and acts as a social hub - housing everything from casual dinners to large scale receptions. With 33 foot ceilings and steel and glass roll up doors that open to the pool and beyond, the barn makes for a dramatic rustic cathedral.

Included in the site fee, the original 1940s rancher's cottage features two cozy bedrooms, bathroom, living room, wood-burning fireplace. Lovingly restored with a classic front porch - complete with rockers - an open beamed ceiling, a large dry stacked stone fireplace and batten board walls.
